Delta Air Lines launching nonstop service from CMH to Salt Lake City

COLUMBUS, OH – The Columbus Regional Airport Authority (CRAA) is pleased to announce the return of Delta Air Lines' nonstop service from John Glenn Columbus International Airport (CMH) to Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC). Daily service begins June 7, 2024 aboard a 160-seat Boeing 737-800 aircraft.

Salt Lake City is a key route connecting Columbus travelers with business opportunities and leisure activities, from scenic winter sports to its vibrant city life.

"CRAA along with our many loyal Delta customers at CMH are grateful to the airline for resuming nonstop service to this popular destination," said Joseph R. Nardone, President & CEO of CRAA. "Salt Lake City is a top destination for Columbus travelers and a critical business route. We are thrilled to once again connect our two thriving cities via nonstop service with Delta Air Lines."

Delta's nonstop service to Salt Lake City brings the total to 51 destinations served nonstop from Columbus, more than prior to the pandemic. Visit Delta.com to book a flight. Visit FlyColumbus.com to view all 51 destinations served from Columbus.
